RESPONSE SUBMITTED AFTER FINAL ACTION
TO SOLICIT AN ADVISORY ACTION

Dear Sir:

The office action dated June 13, 2003, indicated that the terminal disclaimer previously submitted by Applicant does not comply with 37 C.F.R. 1.321(b) and/or (c) because the person that signed the terminal disclaimer did not state the extent of his/her interest, or the business entity's interest in the application/patent. Applicant respectfully submits another terminal disclaimer to obviate the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting rejection of pending claims 29-152.

Applicant will submit another supplemental information disclosure statement next week, citing references brought recently to light in a pending litigation. Applicant believes the claims pending here are distinct over any reference cited that qualifies as prior art. Applicant is simply submitting a record of these references in the interest of complete candor. Favorable consideration of the claims here in view of the new terminal disclaimer is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: 6/24/2003
